

CONGRESS CALLED TO ORDER AT NOONNATION'S LAW MAKERS ARE AGAIN IN SESSION.

The Legislation to Come Up Is Not Expected to Be of Any Great Importance.—The Income Tax Appropriation Will Surely Go Through.—Forecast of Business Anticipated.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 3.—Both houses of congress were called to order at noon today for the regular winter session. Present indications are that the senate will be ready for business, while fears are expressed that no quorum of the house will be on hand.

Senators and representatives poured into Washington last evening. Vice-President Stevenson took his old rooms at the Normandie and reports his daughter much improved. Speaker Crisp has been in town for several days, and ex-Speaker Reed arrived at the Shoreham late last evening. The Pennsylvania limited from Chicago brought a whole platoon of western statesmen, including Senators Cullom of Illinois, Allison of Iowa, Hansbrough of North Dakota, Power of Montana, and any number of representatives.

Interviews with a large number of the senators and representatives developed a unanimity of feeling relative to the prospects of the session, which are expected to include little or nothing beyond the regular appropriation bills. Several of the republican senators declared the republicans in the upper house could not afford to defeat the appropriation for the collection of the income tax. They argue that, as the law was regularly passed they can not put themselves in the position of preventing its execution and depriving the government of much needed revenue. Many of the republican senators would willingly vote for its repeal on a straight issue, but will not obstruct the appropriation if reported by the democratic majority on the senate finance committee.

Representatives and senators say that while nothing is in sight on the tariff or the currency on which the majority can agree, something must be done to provide work outside of the appropriation bills, and hence it is believed that measures like the Chicago public building stand a good chance of passage. The Nicaragua canal will receive early attention, as well as the bankruptcy and anti-option bills, besides which the free silver men will have a number of measures. The President's message will be delivered to congress in the afternoon.

WHAT MAY BE DONE.

Forecast of Legislative Work for the Short Session.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 3.—Beyond the passage of the regular appropriation bills it seems probable that little in the way of legislation will be accomplished at the short session, although several important propositions will doubtless be pressed to the front. Before the adjournment for the holidays it will be necessary to pass an appropriation to carry out the tariff bill provision levying a tax on incomes, the collection of which begins Jan. 1, and while it will no doubt meet with opposition and lead to a general review of the arguments against such a tax, the general impression is that it will pass by a large majority.

The impeachment of Judge Ricks of the northern district of Ohio will also furnish a diversion before the holidays if the judiciary committee which investigated the charges should present a resolution of impeachment and it should carry. The trial would occur in the senate, the chief justice presiding. Impeachment proceedings are rare and novel, and this one, the first since the trial of President Johnson, would attract national attention.

This afternoon if a quorum is present in the house after the calling of the roll nothing will be done probably beyond the reading of the President's message. No definite program has been arranged for the remainder of the week. The committee on appropriations, however, has two bills almost prepared, the pension and fortification bills, and they will be reported to-morrow so that work upon them can be entered upon Wednesday.

The senate will be called to order today at 12 o'clock noon, when the Fifty-third congress will begin. The session will begin with a full calendar, the result of committee action during the long session, and it contains at least 200 items, covering a wide range of matters. Nothing has transpired to indicate which of these 200 questions will receive first attention, whether they will be taken in their order, or whether the calendar will be followed at all.

Much interest is felt among senators of all political beliefs in the President's message and in the recommendations which the secretary of the treasury will make on financial questions. These will have much to do in directing the course of the senate. If there are recommendations for radical departures in financial methods they are sure to lead to much speechmaking early in the session and later to form the basis of committee actions.

There appears to be nothing outside of financial or tariff questions likely to excite a ripple during the week, and it is not certain that, whatever may happen later in the session, there will be much in these lines to disturb the general serenity of the senate during the next few days. After the receipt of the President's message and when it gets to business the senate may take up the calendar in regular order, or it may proceed to consider out of order some of the more important bills which have been reported, such as those for the admission of Arizona and New Mexico, or the bankruptcy, anti-option or Nicaragua bill. In any event the daily sessions of the week will be short, with the probabilities strongly in favor of an adjournment from Thursday until Monday of the week following.

Walthall Likely to Take His Seat.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 3.—Representative Catchings of Mississippi says that Gen. Walthall, who resigned the senatorship from Mississippi which expired March 3, 1895, but who was elected to the succeeding six years, will probably take his seat. He has recovered his health, the condition of which was the cause of his resignation last spring.

HE IS NOT BLUFFING.

Kolb Will Assume All the Prerogatives of Governor.

MONTGOMERY, Ala., Dec. 2.—Everything was quiet in Alabama yesterday in spite of the dual government. A bill aimed at Kolb will be introduced in the Alabama house of representatives today by Thomas Knight. A friend of Kolb's announces that he will at once assume all of the prerogatives of governor, will make appointments, send messages to the legislature, and do any other official duties he can under the circumstances. This bill will unquestionably pass by a strict party vote of about 87 to 44. Whoever shall violate any of the provisions of the act shall be fined not less than $500 nor more than $10,000, and shall be imprisoned in the penitentiary of the state for not more than twenty-five years. The bill is directed against any one who shall assume any of the functions of an officer of the state without being declared legally elected.

Most of the visitors, including the twenty-six companies of state troops, left the city last night. The council of the populist leaders called for the afternoon was not held.

FEAR OF LYNCHING.

Alleged Murderers of the Meeks Family to Be Taken Back to Missouri.

St. JOSEPH, Mo., Dec. 3.—Sheriff Carson received advices yesterday from Sheriff Barton of Linn county stating that he would arrive here to-day and take the Taylor brothers, the alleged murderers of the Meeks family, back with him for arraignment in the Linn county courts to-morrow. When the Taylors were told that they were to be taken back, they became seriously alarmed and the elder brother expressed great fear that they might meet with violence. He also stated that they would ask for a change of venue at once as they are satisfied they can not secure a fair trial at home. The brothers show a decided tendency to weaken, now that they know that they will be taken back, and the boasts they have made all along to the effect that they wanted to be tried in Linn county have fallen flat. The Linn county sheriff will come with a heavy guard and thinks he will have no trouble to defend his prisoners. It is the thought that the prisoners will be taken out of St. Joseph and taken to Linn county by a round about way.

Coal to Start Down the Ohio.

PITTSBURGH, Dec. 3.—Heavy rains for the past week here and in the upper country have brought a "barge rise," and this morning between 60,000,000 and 80,000,000 bushels of coal are expected to be started for southern ports. There are 13,000,000 bushels in the harbor here, and should the rise reach a "boating" stage the entire fleet of coal boats will go down the river with all the coal they can manage.

Another Missing Man.

St. PAUL, Minn., Dec. 3.—James H. Burns, ex-county auditor and publisher of the St. Paul Daily Herald, has disappeared. One theory is that he has absconded and another is that he has committed suicide. Burns some months ago, on account of financial irregularities, resigned the county auditorship, to which office he had been elected, and was under indictment when he disappeared.

Epworth League Officers.

ROCKFORD, Ill., Dec. 3.—The annual convention of Rock River conference, Epworth league, closed its business session by the election of officers as follows: President, Dr. J. G. Wolfe, Chicago; secretary, C. N. Gary, Wheaton; recording secretary, Miss Jessie King, Rock Falls; treasurer, W. E. Harrington, Freeport.

JAPANESE FLEETS
WANT MORE OF WARTHEY DESIRE TO TAKE A MORE ACTIVE PART.

Efforts Are Being Made by China to Prepare for Another Stand—American Minister at Peking Is To Be Protected—Armenians Are Stirred Up. General Foreign News.

CHIEFOO, Dec. 3.—It is reported here that the Japanese fleet is desirous of taking a more prominent part in the war. The fleet was seen off Wei-Hai-Wei, but has now disappeared. Wei-Hai-Wei is strongly defended. The Chinese fleet was still inside the harbor.

Reinforcements are being poured in from the land side. Gen. Chang is in command. He is a brave and competent officer, and is assisted by several foreigners. The Chinese people fear if peace is made the disbanded troops will commit outrages. In ten days' time all the traffic northward will close. The Japanese will have to act quickly if they intend to attack Peking.

The last reliable report received here says Japan has informed the American minister that she is willing to negotiate if China sues for peace. This China has done, so an armistice is likely to be arranged.

MOVES TO CHINESE SHORES.

Will Protect the American Minister with Ample Force.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 3.—Admiral Carpenter, in charge of the American fleet in Chinese waters, has been heard from by the navy department. The admiral telegraphs he has left Nagasaki for Taku, where he will be in position to co-operate with the British fleet for the protection of the foreigners in Peking. Full instructions were cable to Admiral Carpenter and an intimation given that he should have been far from Nagasaki long ago. It is believed the legations in Peking will be enabled to unite for the common protection, but it is also considered in official circles that the situation in the Chinese capital is grave in the extreme. Secretary Gresham now does not deny that alarming dispatches were received from Minister Denby, but declares that there has been nothing recent. It is believed now a show of force by England and the United States at or near Tien Tsin will have its effect in Peking.

It is realized, however, that with the defeat of the army is liable to come the total collapse of the reigning dynasty, in which case Peking could not escape the horrors of a mob of infuriated and reckless heathen, whose hatred of everything foreign is notorious.

TO HELP ARMENIANS.

Kimberly Makes Strong Representations to the Turkish Ambassador.

LONDON, Dec. 3.—The Daily News says it is believed Prime Minister Rosebery is willing to grant an official hearing to the Armenians in London on the Sassoun affair. A dispatch to the Daily News from Constantinople says that it is reported that the earl of Kimberly, the British foreign minister, has made strong representations to Rustem Pasha, the Turkish ambassador to Great Britain, on the contents of the port's circular, and has insisted upon an honest inquiry being made into the outrages and the necessity of better judgment in Armenia. The port is becoming convinced that the powers are in earnest.

Tone Down Anti-Revolutionary Bill.

LONDON, Dec. 3.—A special to the Times from Berlin says the anti-revolutionary measures to be submitted to the Reichstag are believed to be so limited in scope that they will not be likely to provoke serious opposition. The dispatch adds that Herr Sachs, controller of the relations of the Alsace government with the press, has been summoned to Berlin to reorganize the press department at headquarters.

Nicholas' Amnesty Is Far-Reaching.

St. PETERSBURG, Dec. 3.—The proclamation of amnesty issued by the czar on the occasion of his marriage includes the accused Lutheran clergymen of the Baltic provinces. It is expected that all such prosecutions will be dropped and that the order for the expulsion of German officials and workmen from Russia will be rescinded.

China Borrowing Money.

LONDON, Dec. 3.—A dispatch from Berlin says China has accepted the English offer of 4½ per cent loan of £1,200,000 ($6,000,000). A dispatch to the Times from Vienna says Japan advises to the end of September show the war had been less injurious to trade than was expected. The rice crop promises to be from 10 to 20 per cent above the average.

Not Sent by Li Hung Chang.

CITY OF MEXICO, Dec. 3.—The report that there has been a conflict between advance guards on the frontier of Mexico and Guatemala is denied here.

QUEER THUG LOOSE
AT MONON STATIONBRUTAL MURDER NEAR CRAW-FORDSVILLE INDIANA.

CRAWFORDSVILLE, Ind., Dec. 3.—A murder was committed here yesterday morning at 3 o'clock, the victim being Will Schlemmer, night operator at the Monon station. He was alone in the building when a well dressed stranger entered and bought a ticket to Linden. After the sale Schlemmer lay down on a cot and the stranger drawing a revolver deliberately shot him through the head. Schlemmer staggered to his feet, whereupon the murderer fled. Schlemmer is now in a dying condition at his home and the assassin is still at large.

DOESN'T AFFECT COFFIN'S BONDS.

Judge Baker Talks of the Failure of Coffin & Stanton of New York.

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., Dec. 3.—There has been some apprehension here that the failure of Coffin & Stanton of New York would render worthless the bonds of Francis and Percival Coffin, who were released from the Michigan City penitentiary on a supersedeas after being convicted on a charge of conspiracy to loot the Indianapolis National bank, but Judge Baker says the failure of Coffin & Stanton can not affect the bonds of the Indianapolis Coffins, as the court insisted on an ample indemnifying bond signed by residents of the state, and that the brother's name on the bonds was a mere formality, and added no strength to the paper.

One Life Lost in an Explosion.

HANNIBAL, Mo., Dec. 3.—An explosion occurred yesterday at the Repanau chemical works located at Lamotte, in Pike county, this state. The accident occurred about 10 o'clock in one of the buildings in which the dynamite was stored. Being Sunday no work was being done and consequently but few persons were at the works. Fred Marsh, however, was in the building at the time and he was literally blown to atoms. The entire building was demolished.

Ask Cash for Farmers' Institutes.

LANSING, Mich., Dec. 3.—The farmers of Michigan are going to make a united effort to induce the legislature at its forthcoming session to provide for the holding of farmers' institutes on a more extensive scale than has heretofore been the custom. They claim in this regard Michigan is far behind other states of far less importance from an agricultural standpoint, and that the time has arrived for taking an advance step in this direction.

Coal Operators Talk of a Combine.

PEORIA, Ill., Dec. 3.—The operators of Peoria county, who have watched the coal business of this section go from them, have taken active steps to recover lost ground. Nearly all the operators of the county are in the deal.

Sherwood Dixon Dead.

CHICAGO, Dec. 3.—Sherwood Dixon, United States attorney for the northern district of Illinois, died at his home, at 3 o'clock yesterday morning. The cause of his death was consumption, from which he had long suffered and from which himself as well as his friends felt that he must die. There will be no funeral services in Chicago. The remains will be taken to Dixon, Ill., to-morrow at 8:30 a. m., where the funeral services will be held and the body interred.

Gen. Booth at Omaha.

OMAHA, Neb., Dec. 3.—Two audiences which taxed the capacity of Exposition hall to its utmost greeted Gen. Booth, commander-in-chief of the Salvation army, yesterday afternoon and evening. The general will speak in Council Bluffs to-night.

The prime minister, who is the husband of the queen, afterward addressed the people. He declared that all foreigners remaining were friends of the Hovas and must be treated with respect. The prime minister was applauded.

The French troops who were guarding the house of the French residents left Oct. 24, during the hot weather, for the coast. They had to burn part of their baggage. Some of the soldiers became deranged by the march through the heat and committed suicide. The people here are much incensed against the French.

TO SHIP SUGAR BY SEA.

Western Refining Company Determines to Fight.

SAN FRANCISCO, Cal., Dec. 3.—After Jan. 1 the Western Sugar Refinery company will commence shipping raw sugar from Honolulu to New York direct by ships sailing around Cape Horn. The refinery officials say the change in the shipment route is not due to an oversupply of sugar on the Pacific coast. It is said that the real reason is that an unusually large quantity is to be shipped east from the Hawaiian islands and that as the Southern Pacific will not make a satisfactory rate on overland shipments the refinery people will fight the railroad by sea. Hitherto all the Hawaiian sugar has been brought to San Francisco for distribution. A number of local shippers will suffer by the diversion of the freight.

SAN FRANCISCO, Cal., Dec. 3.—Saloonkeepers of this city have addressed a letter to the president of the University of California and also one to the president of Stanford university, protesting against the conduct of the students after the football match. The students patrolled the city in large parties, smashing chairs and glasses in beer halls and saloons and terrorizing the saloon men. In their efforts to emulate the practices of eastern undergraduates they exceeded their models in recklessness and daring. The police were powerless to control them.

FLAWS IN THE PLAN.

Fault Is Found with Eckels' New Currency Schemes.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Dec. 2.—Many senators and representatives on being shown the abstract of Controller Eckels' report, which is to foreshadow the financial policy of the administration, expressed themselves as dubious of its being practicable at the present time. One Senator, a recognized republican leader said: "The plan outlined by the controller is much too radical. It cannot receive the support of this or the succeeding congress. All the country needs at present to put the gold reserve where it belongs is an abundant revenue. While the $346,000,000 of greenbacks are outside of the treasury, the banks can control the gold reserve by simply presenting greenbacks which they receive in the ordinary course of business. The treasury notes cut little or no figure in the transaction. With an abundant revenue the only need of gold is to settle foreign balances. The idea is gaining ground among thoughtful men in both branches of congress that the entire greenback circulation could be funded into low denomination bonds at the rate of 2½ per cent. Good judges declare this could be done within from one to two years without disturbing the country. What the government needs now is revenue and for this reason the income tax will be allowed to stand and the sugar duty as well. The income tax will probably net this year not over from $12,000,000 to $20,000,000. Next year it will produce an enormous revenue."

Loss, $15,000.

KELLY WILL OPEN A PUBLIC STABLE

JANESVILLE DRIVER LOCATES
IN NEW YORK CITY.

He Had Offers From Robert Bonner and the Penn Valley Stock Farm, But Did Not Accept Either—Directum Made Little Money—Paragraphs About Flyers.

John Kelly, who is now in New York, will open a public training stable at Fleetwood Park. Mr. Kelly was always popular in the east, especially since he handled Directum on the eastern tracks last season. His decision to open a public stable was reached after mature deliberation and the consideration of several good offers. Robert Bonner tendered a situation to Mr. Kelly, but as Mr. Bonner does not campaign his horses, Mr. Kelly did not accept it. Another proposition came from the Penn Valley Stock Farm, another eastern stable, but he decided that a public stable was the best opening. Many Janesville friends will wish Mr. Kelly well and hope that he'll be "ahead of all the dust" next season.

Notes of the Horses.

Directum is safely back in California and C. C. McIver, who leased him from John Green, will not receive much, if anything, for his venture after settling with Orrin A. Hickok and paying expenses. Mr. McIver owns the Linda Vista vineyards at Mission San Jose. James Dustin will handle the horse next season.

It is announced that M. E. McHenry will drive Alix next season in all her eastern states.

Johnston, the first horse that ever paced as fast as 2:06 1/4—and that was over ten years ago—is still in good shape and is hard to beat on the road.

Horse owners say they find wheat a very good substitute for corn.

Flying Jib, 2:04 will not be a member of the Salisbury stable next year.

D. F. SULLIVAN MOVES HIS STORE

The Former Janesville Man Is Evidently Prospering at Rockford.

D. F. Sullivan's Rockford jewelry business must be the right kind, for he has moved to new and better quarters, there, and The Republican says "he confidently expects through the methods that have won success for him in the past, to continue his successful career." Incidentally The Republican says that Mr. Sullivan adopted a novel way of moving, he chartering a street car, which was loaded full of jewelry and then run over to the new store. It was a new idea in moving, but most convenient and less liable to result in damage to stock than an express wagon.

BURGLARS DRIVEN OFF WITH GUNS

Wee's store at Orfordville, of about everything that was in it some days ago, robbers made another attempt at 3 o'clock in the morning, when the back door, which was securely bolted and barred, was broken open, but Messrs. Wee and Megorden who sleep in the store, were awakened by the noise and greeted the intruders with a couple of shots from their revolvers, which put a stop to further proceedings.

ASKS ABOUT HIGH SCHOOL WORK

"Anxious Parent" Has Inquiries to Make Concerning Material and Workmanship.

The Gazette received the following communication today which explains itself, with the request that it be published.

EDITOR GAZETTE:—Many citizens are anxious to know whether the new high school building will be a safe one. We understand that the base of a wall should be the broadest, but in this building we hear that the footing courses were so made that the large foundation stones project beyond them on the outside in some places six or eight inches.

We are told that double brick walls should be bound together by brick laid crosswise about every seven courses. In this building we hear very little binding has been done. One wall often being built up twenty or more courses they say before the other, with no chance for binding bricks.

Masons tell us that about one hundred barrels of cement are needed for mortar for the walls of this building. It is said that less than one fifth that amount has been used. If reports are true, will such mortar make safe walls?

Many bricks used in the interior walls are, they say, easily crushed by pressure. Add to this the imperfections already mentioned and what will be the result?

If reports are true, why has the faulty construction been allowed to go on? Why was not an inspector appointed? Is money to be saved by giving us a structure that may menace the lives of our children and may bring expense, disgrace and sorrow to us in the future?

Cannot these walls be tested by men who are reliable and competent, and if proven defective cannot these defects be remedied before it is too late?

AN ANXIOUS PARENT

"DEVIL'S LAKE" IS A BAD PLACE.

Railroad Men Say That Trains Should Go Slow There.

Janesville railroad men say that the recent railroad accident at the Devil's nose, just east of Devil's lake, wherein an engine and nine cars were thrown down a dangerous embankment should prompt the Northwestern company to give "slow orders" for that place. The track there is very serpentine, and if the company continues to shoot their trains down the toboggan slide, the day may not be distant when on some of those reverse curves a train will fly the track, and if it happens to be loaded with human freight, the loss of life will be something appalling. Several times during recent years accidents have been narrowly averted there, but in each instance it has been the result of good luck and not good management that no fatalities have occurred.

CANNOT BUNCO EDITOR LIBBY.

Metropolitan Exchanges Get No Advertising Without Paying For It.

Editor Libby of the Evansville Enterprise, does not intend to be buncoed by metropolitan competitors. He says: "Some of our metropolitan exchanges say to us that their exchange list is so large that they do not care to increase it by exchanging with us, but if we will give them a certain amount of advertising they will send us their publication. We wish to say in reply to all such, that this office is struck with the same disease and it will be mutual with us not to exchange with them. Our advertising space is cash in advance."

MR. AND MRS. BAUMAN SURPRISED

Twenty-Fifth Anniversary of their Wedding Celebrated on Sunday.

December 2, 1894, was the twenty-fifth anniversary of the marriage of Mr. and Mrs. August W. Bauman. The anniversary was duly observed last evening at their pleasant home No. 6, Mineral Point avenue. A large number of their friends, remembering the day, sprung a surprise upon the couple, and the home was well filled with guests who assisted in making the occasion one of great pleasure. Mr. and Mrs. Bauman were the recipients of numerous tokens as reminder of the anniversary, and esteem of their many friends.

Use It In Time.

Catarrah starts in the nasal passages, affecting eyes, ears and throat, and in fact, the general enemy of the mucous membrane. Neglected colds in the head almost invariably precede catarrah, causing an excessive flow of mucus, and if the mucous discharge becomes interrupted the disagreeable results of catarrah will follow, such as bad breath, severe pain across forehead and about eyes, a roaring and buzzing sound in the ears and oftentimes a very offensive discharge. Ely's Cream Balm is the acknowledged cure for these troubles.

RECEIVER TO HOLD THE WATER WORKS

JUDGE BENNETT REFUSES A STAY OF PROCEEDINGS.

Power Now Rests with the Supreme Court, and an Order Must Be Sought There—He Considered an Inquiry Into the Company's Income Very Necessary.

Judge Bennett refused to dismiss the receiver in the water works case today. In behalf of the company Attorney E. M. Hyzer made a motion to set aside the receivership, the company to furnish an indemnity bond in any sum desired by the court. This bond, he argued, would insure the city against loss pending the appeal to the supreme court.

Judge Bennett expressed doubts as to this being a satisfactory alternative. He saw obstacles in the way of complete protection of property-holders' interests. In any event however, the case was now in the supreme court and he thought that court now had all the power over the case. Application for a stay of proceedings should be made there.

In explaining the need of Judge Bennett said:

"I think it is very important that the city should know the amount of the company's income."

"I suppose there was no question about this," said Attorney Hyzer.

"The income is recorded on the company's books."

"Of course," said Judge Bennett,

"the company is required by law to keep upright books. If they have not, it is important that this be known."

Mr. Turner, of the original firm of Turner, Clark & Rawson has declared that every cent of the $200,000 of capital was paid in, but the complaint now states that this is false—that bonds for $160,000 were issued, a mortgage given on the franchise and all the Janesville property and that the works actually cost $30,000 less than the amount of the bonds.

There was other discussion and the court finally said:

"I don't feel that I can issue an order to stay proceedings as the power is not in my hands. The power now rests with the supreme court."

"Then we may understand you also as saying that you would refuse to issue the order if you had the power?" said Attorney Jeffers.

"As I said before this question does not come before me, but I hardly see how the city could be secured in any other way than is now being done. To set aside the receivership would put the works right back into the hands of the men from whom the city asked to be protected."

H.C. THOM OPPOSED TO FREE PASSES

Transportation Will Not Be As Plentiful In Janesville This Winter.

Legislative passes between Janesville and Madison will not be as thick as usual this winter. The abolition of the pass is contemplated and republican dealers say everything will be done that stringent laws can accomplish. H. C. Thom, chairman of the state central committee said in Milwaukee:

"I can not say what the coming legislature will do in regard to that matter. There is no question but the practice has become as burdensome and obnoxious to legislators and the railroads as to the people at large. The practice, in the extent to which it has grown, has had its chief incentive from the great mass of people in their clamorous demands upon their representatives in their legislatures to obtain from them passes to the state capital and return. It is not only burdensome to the railroads but to the members of the legislature as well. There is not little doubt but that the time is not far distant, and it may now be close at hand, when the sentiment against the practice will be so strong that the legislature will enact a law prohibiting the granting of free passes to judiciary, executive and legislative officers of the state. Such a law would, of course, completely do away with the free pass practice in the state. I would like to see it done, but have no knowledge as to how soon it will be done."

SING AND PREACH IN A GOOD CAUSE

EVANGELISTIC SERVICES BEGIN TOMORROW EVENING.

Cheney-Merrill Force and Male Quartette To Open Their Meetings at the Baptist Church at That Time—The Address Issued Jointly by Dr. Hodge and the Rev. S. F. Wilder

Evangelistic meetings conducted by Charles W. Merrill, as preacher; Rev. R. L. Cheney, as general manager, and a male quartet, consisting of Messrs. Porter, Olds, Williams and Boughton, who have sung themselves into public favor everywhere, will open at the Baptist church tomorrow evening and later to be transferred to the Congregational church. A large chorus choir will be organized, in addition to the quartet, and all singers are invited to help in the work with their voices. The managers say they do not wish this work to be confined to any one or two churches, but to touch and bless all the life of the city, and strengthen all its churches, and by them a most cordial invitation is extended to all to join in the services.

The circular sent out by Dr. M. G. Hodge and Rev. S. P. Wilder concerning the meetings, says:

"Mr. Merrill is a strong, interesting and forceful preacher, and the quartette are cultivated musicians of a high order, and also earnest christian workers. During the past month of tent work in summer, and church work in winter, this force has been blessed of God in quickening and upbuilding the spiritual life of hundreds of christians, and in bringing hundreds of the unconverted to Christ. We pray for, hope for and expect great results from their work among us."

"The meetings will begin December 4th, at the Baptist church, and later will be transferred to the Congregational church."

"If you are a christian will you not pray earnestly for these meetings? Speak to your friends of them, and plan to be present at all the services and engage in personal work for souls."

"If you are not a confessed follower of Christ, will you not make this the time for earnest and honest consideration of the claims of Christ upon you? Attend the meetings regularly, and thus give the spirit of God a fair chance to impress upon you a sense of the duties and privileges of the christian life."

"We can but feel that these meetings will decide the future course and eternal destiny of many men and women, young and old, in our city. May you be among those who shall receive a rich blessing from Christ our Lord."

DANIEL WEBSTER'S FEES.

The Great Lawyer's Income Was Unusually Limited Even for His Day.

One of our correspondents has been so lucky as to fall in with a little leather-covered book, like those of our bank depositors, which contains Daniel Webster's autograph record of his legal receipts. This chronicle fills twenty-eight pages, and extends a little more than from 1833 to 1836 inclusive. The first entry, dated September in the former year, is of $50, and the second of $20, for retainers on the New York circuit. The first fee of $1,000 was paid in May, 1834, by a Mr. Badger. Services regarding Cilley's will commanded $800. The total amount for the first year was $13,140, with the remark, "Sept. 22, 1834, thus done and concluded." A similar summing up appears at the close of each other year. The second total is $15,183.74; the third is $21,793. The first entry of $2,000 was in 1835, March 7; the first of $3,000 December 7 in the same year. This last payment was in respect to Florida land. The largest single honorarium was $7,500. In February of the fourth year $5,000 is set down as bestowed in a case of Trinity church (New York). In turning over this record leading metropolitan and even provincial lawyers are astonished that Webster, although twenty years in Boston, so undervalued his services.
He learned better at last. When Robert C. Winthrop looked at the earliest date he said: "That's just the time that I was ending my studies in Webster's office," and the chirogra-phy led him to add that Webster never wrote a firm hand.

Names of Chinese War Ships.

To the Chinese there is no confusion in the names of their cruisers and gunboats, and if Ting Yuen and King Yuen get mixed by the time they arrive in New York it will not seriously affect the fortunes of war in the China sea. In colloquial Chinese the distinction is preserved by the difference of tone. In the Chinese characters, or ideographs, the possibility of confusion is absolutely nil, for Ching Yuen and Chih Yuen no more resemble each other than do
New York and Minneapolis, or than Bunker hill monument resembles the state house. "Ting Yuen" signifies "future security;" "Chen Yuen,"
"guarding the future." The characters on the other vessels are as distinct in sound, appearance and meaning as these two.

Fighting Fire in China.

When a fire starts in a certain locality in Chinese cities protected by walls extending from one end of the town to the other, a large wooden gate is swung across the street. In this way the fire is confined to definite limits. Generally the fire is uninterrupted until there is nothing left within the inclosure but ashes, and in the ashes the owner must seek his property. He has no insurance methods, and unless helped by his own family is left to start anew.

The re-building is not a difficult matter, as there are no foundations or cellars.

An Interesting Relic.

The cathedral of Mayence has just come into possession of an interesting relic. The German poetess, Hahn Hahn, has left to the sacred edifice the crucifix worn by Marie Stuart at her execution, and which bears the date of February 18, 1578. This relic is perfectly authentic.

Lost Wife and Fame.

Victor Koeing died in Paris recently. His fame lay in the circumstance that he was once a husband to Ac-given an epitaph enlightening graveyard ghoul and visitors that he was divorced from Jane and fame at one time in his life.

1688—Flight of King James II of England from his palace; British revolution.

1800—Battle of Hohenlinden; defeat of the Austrians by the French under Moreau.

1823—Belzoni, famous traveler, died in Africa; born in Padua 1778.

Two democratic members-elect of the Fifty-fourth congress will owe their seats to republican votes, and the country owes its thanks to the Texas republicans who voted for democrats in preference to populists.

If the Attorney General has no better defense than a denial of the constitutional right of congress to grant bounties to individuals, the beet sugar makers will win their suit for this year's bounty.

The Kentucky editor who asserts that Secretary Carlisle thinks for himself is doubtless right, but what makes so much trouble is that Carlisle continues to act for Mr. Cleveland.

The fact that the democrats so dread to see him in the speaker's chair again would of itself be sufficient to cause the republicans to make Mr. Reed speaker of the next house.

Congressman Wilson doesn't draw dollars as a lecturer any better than he did votes as a candidate. He should take the hint before it is more forcibly given.

Senator Faulkner talks about educating the democratic masses in finance. Perhaps he would better begin on something easier—voting, for instance.

There is but one little drawback to that alleged political partnership between Senators Cameron and Jones, of Nevada. It has never been formed.

The circus tent in politics was not a great "go," for which many thanks are due. Every campaign produces clowns enough anyway.

It is not surprising that democratic congressmen should regard the short session as a solemn affair. Funerals usually are.

PRENTICE & EVENSON.

MET DEATH IN THE ALPS.

Now Two Darling Climbers, Tied Together, Were Dashed to Death.

The latest victims of ambition to climb the Matterhorn were Andreas Seiler, a tourist, and Johann Biener, a guide. They belonged to a party of five and, being a little more venturesome, had gone ahead. One of the surviving three tells of the accident as follows:

The others were only five minutes ahead, and we had reached a difficult spot and were standing in steps cut at the top of a small patch of ice, at an angle of fifty degrees and close to rock, when Mooser called out, "Beware of stones." We pressed close to the rock and listened, when the two (Seiler and Biener) shot past us. We were all three close together, and Mooser could have touched them with his ax. They were tied together. Seiler passed close to us, his back downward, his head well bent up, as if he were preparing for a sudden shock. Biener flew far out against the blue sky and the rope was stretched tightly between them. They fell on to the Glacier du Lion, and when the bodies were recovered they were still tied together. With both the crown of the head was cut away as though it had been done by a sharp instrument. Seiler's watch was crushed and his left boot was missing, although the foot was uninjured. How the accident happened will never be known, as no one saw them slip. I am inclined to think that Seiler was climbing at the same time as Biener, instead of waiting until he had a firm hold, and that the former slipped, jerking Biener off his feet. I am strengthened in this belief by the position of the two as I saw them fly past.

SMALL BUT EFFECTIVE,

Was the little Monitor that met the Merrimac at Hampton Roads. So too are Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets, effective in conquering the enemy—disease. When you take a pill it's an important point to have them small—provided they have equal strength and efficacy. You find what you want in these little liver pills of Dr. Pierce. They're put up in a better way, and they act in a better way, than the huge old-fashioned pills. What you want when you're "all out of sorts"—grumpy, thick-headed and take a gloomy view of life, is these Pellets to clear up your system and start your liver into healthful action. Sick Headache, Bilious Headache, Constipation, Indigestion, Bilious Attacks, and all derangements of the liver, stomach and bowels, are prevented, relieved, and cured. Put up in sealed glass vials, and always fresh and reliable.

JAMES WILLIAM CRAIG, Esq., of Georgetown, Ky., says: "My wife thinks your little 'Pellets' are the greatest pills out."

The prices we are letting the best quality of goods out at simply make people buy them

Moths are terrible things to get into a stock of goods. Once in always in.

Some people in making a cost sale make more bluster over a card of hooks and eyes at a cent—the kind we throw in—or a quarter of a cent off the price of an article,

We don't hear much about Dr. Goods. Such a stock as we show, at our COST PRICES, simply stops all arguments. What can anyone say? Simply can't say anything much, for it would not be swallowed by the people. The people know where dress goods headquarters is.

All Goods at Cost. All Cloaks and Fur Capes at Cost. We Keep the Quality Up.

We are selling our great stock of goods at COST, and will for sixty days. Talk about great dry goods selling, just drop into our store any time and see what we are doing.

While we are selling items that you see advertised by other houses at their cost figures, for much less money, we are also selling hundreds of things at cost that are not represented at all in other stocks about town. We are making the grandest sale of Black Gros Grain Silks, Satins, Armures, Surahs, etc., and colored Pean de Soie, Failles, Marveleaux, etc., that Janesville has ever known. Over 150 pieces at prices that make woman ask us the second time, thinking that they may have misunderstood us.

Others May Follow..

There is a wonderful amount of satisfaction in leading and that's what we are doing right now—others may follow—especially that "little fellow" but we'll give them the merriest chase of their lives for we have both elegance and durability in harness for the feet with a price and its a team none can catch. Do you follow?

OWEN WANTS $2,500 FROM GREENE BROS.

TOBACCO FIRM SUE FOR DAMAGES ON A DEAL.

He Claims That the Goods Involved in a Transaction for Seven Thousand Dollars Were Not as Represented. W. H. Graves Got a Judgment Against Clara B. Warner.

A TOBACCO deal amounting to seven thousand dollars and damages placed at $2,500 is now being considered by a jury in the circuit court. The action is brought by E. J. Owen against Greene Brothers, and in a suit to recover damages on contract, claimed plaintiff to amount to $2,500, on account of misrepresentation of goods, Fethers, Jeffris, Fifeild & Matheson appear for the plaintiff and Sutherland & Nolan for defendants. The jury in the case of W. H. Graves as claimant against George Hanthorn, guardian of Clara B. Warner, brought in a verdict this afternoon in favor of Graves for $164.50. The case will probably be appealed.

JAMES RILEY was arrested by the police this morning on advice from Clinton, which said that Riley was wanted but didn't tell what for. He was arrested just as he stepped off the cars at the depot. He will be held for the Clinton officers. With this exception no arrests have been made by the police for several days and Chief Acheson said this morning that last Sunday was one of the quietest of the season.

LAST night Sherman's World of Wonders and Oana's Imperial Japanese troupe played to the capacity of the Grand Opera house. Long before the curtain went up standing room was at a premium. This is the strongest specialty show that has visited La Fayette this season and Manager McGinley at once made arrangements for a return date.—Journal, La Fayette. At Myers Grand Tuesday and Wednesday, and Wednesday matinee.

EVERYBODY came to us last Saturday, the greatest day of our lifetime. Many did not believe we were selling at exact cost to us until we proved it to them inside the store. Then they bought heavily. We have $60,000 worth of new dry goods which we propose to sacrifice. They are all paid for and we will charge you nothing for our work. See large ad. Bort, Bailey & Co.

THE art of advertising is a new one. It has changed though, since Barnum said: "The object was to fool people and the American public liked to be fooled." That might wash all right in the circus business, as the circus comes but once a year, but we are on deck three hundred and sixty-five days in the year, and we can't afford to fool you. Brown Bros. & Lincoln.

OUR competitors complain that we are selling drygoods without a profit and ruining the business. The first is true, we are selling at exact cost to us. We are losing money and no doubt ruining our competitors' business, but you would have an elegant time making the people of Southern Wisconsin go to any other dry goods store. Bort, Bailey & Co.

THERE is likely to be a full house at the meeting of the common council this evening. The important business will undoubtedly hinge on the report of the finance committee in relation to the report of Expert Card. Just what this report will be, if made this evening is not publicly known, but rumor has it that steps are to be taken to settle up and balance the books.

We are making suits and overcoats to measure cheaper than any other tailoring house in the city. Have a large crew of first class workmen, and can fill orders on short notice. Give us a trial and be convinced that we run the leading tailoring establishment. J. Weisend, 21 West Milwaukee street.

DID you ever hear tell of a purchaser wanting to buy an imitation, or one just as good? You might just as well have the real Goodyear glove storm rubbers and Alaskas, as to have somebody "work off" one just as good, or about the same. We sell them at 50 cents and $1. Brown Bros. & Lincoln.

THE Good Templars will give a social at the hall tomorrow evening and a very pleasing program has been propounded and supper will also be served. The public are invited to attend and a good time is assured. Tickets to the entertainment and supper are but fifteen cents.

SLAUGHTER sale now going on at Weisend's, 21 West Milwaukee street. Men's and boy's clothing, shirts, underwear, hats, caps, gloves, mittens, neckwear, collars, cuffs, &c., all go at and below cost. Must be sold in thirty days. A $15,000 stock to select from.

GIRL TOLD IT ALL WHILE IN A TRANCE

PECULIAR MYSTERY THAT DR. FLINT OPENED UP.

His Work with Mabel Briggs at Eau Claire, of Interest to Janesville People Where It Has Been Debated Whether or Not He Was a Fakir—Doctors Saw His Tricks.

Janesville people who debated pro and con whether or not Dr. Herbert Flint was a "fakir" may be interested in reading about the Briggs case at Eau Claire. Mr. Flint was summoned from here, it will be remembered, to see what he could do with the girl who was supposed to be hypnotized by Asigal Pickin and his father and then abused by both, the case resulting in their arrest. The girl lay in a comatose state and as she did not recover her mental faculties, it was at first thought that she had been drugged, but, as the days passed by and her mental condition did not improve, it was thought that, as a final resort the question of mesmerism and hypnotism was worth considering, and Dr. Herbert Flint was called, arriving here September 25. It was known that Mabel Briggs, her 14 year-old girl friend, Alma Leonard and young Asigal Pickin had practiced hypnotism for amusement, and that Mabel, though a bright, intelligent, healthy girl of 17, was one of the best subjects who had been seen on the stage at Dr. Flint's hypnotic performances at the opera-house in this city a few months ago. She is "sensitive" in other words.

Mabel, at the time Flint arrived had been in this strange condition of mental stupor for twenty days. She could give no intelligent account of herself. Her talk was disconnected and fragmentary. The theory is that she was under the hypnotic control of Asigal Pickin, who in turn was supposed to be under the control of his father.

Flint had an Audience. Upon this control supposed to be weighing on Mabel's mind, Dr. Flint superimposed his own, so to speak. The operation took place at the home of the Briggs family. District Attorney Wrayley, Dr. Parker, Mr. Leonard (father of Alma), Mr. Briggs, a stenographer and others were present. Dr. Flint put Mabel into a mesmeric sleep so deep that her respiration could hardly be detected. The process by which he did this was simply passing his right hand lightly over her face and impressing upon her in firm but soothing tones the idea of submission and sleep. Her eyes closed. Muscular control was lost. The pulse was hardly perceptible. A knife was passed through her arm without producing any sign of sensation. She was questioned.

In substance her story was that while she was walking with young Pickin, September 4, they met two men on Water street (on which Pickin Institute is located); that she was taken to Little Niagara, across the Chippewa river in the woods, and that the two men assaulted her. She could not tell who they were, but described them and said she would know them if she saw them. In some unknown way, Mabel's description of the two mysterious men came to the ears of two well known gentlemen of that city, and the upshot of it was that each of them retained an attorney and for ten days didn't know what to expect.

Was Finally Released. Flint released her by snapping his fingers, commanding her to awake, and she burst into tears. For the first time after the terrible treatment to which she had been subjected, she gave expression to feelings of horror and self-pity, but she seemed to have relapsed to a great extent into the same state in which she was before Dr. Flint's operations. She could not tell who the men were who had committed the crime.

It was then determined to compel young Pickin to release his control of the girl. By means in which it appears that moral suasion played the largest part, young Pickin was induced to do this. The operations took place at Dr. Parker's office, and Asigal Pickin went through the process of dehypnotizing Mabel Briggs. The theory is that in doing so he nevertheless left the suggestion in her mind that she must continue to shield the Pickins, father and son, but that this suggestion was weaker than before and eventually proved ineffectual. Asigal says that at this time he also was hypnotized by Mabel.

Dr. Parker continued to treat Mabel, endeavoring to restore her as nearly as possible to a normal condition, mentally and physically, which, it is claimed, she has finally attained. Thus she passed into the fourth and last stage of the extraordinary experience through which she has gone. In the first place, she was supposed to be under the control of the Pickins. Then she was placed under the control of Dr. Flint. When released from this she relapsed into that of the Pickins. She was released by Asigal Pickin and began progressing toward the normal state of mental freedom. In the last state, so the story goes, she was given the narrative on which the arrest of Dr. George W. Pickin and his son Asigal was made.

Ludington is a married man and lives on Jerome avenue in Spring Brook. He is an experienced planer and has hard work understanding how he was caught.

THE free advertising that we get from time to time at the hands of competitors is one of the best kinds of advertising we know of. No merchant is going to write about another merchant unless he is being hurt. If competitors are howling already, what will they do ere our great cost sale is through with? Then again what does the average dry goods buyer care about goods what are going to be in a month or two. Says Mrs. Depp-thinker: I am not bothering myself about the future; my present needs are what I am looking after. We are now carrying on a cost sale, the magnitude of which has never been known in Janesville, and is it any wonder that competitors are feeling the effects of such a sale. It's a body blow to all competitors. It's the most favorable opportunity the people have ever had to buy goods just when they need them the most. Our prices argue well. Our prices on everything in the store. J. M. Bostwick & Sons.

EXPERTS ARE DONE WITH THE BOOKS

COUNCIL EXPECTS TO REACH THE MATTER TO-NIGHT.

Thought That the Finance Committee Will Make a Recommendation as to the Future Course to Be Taken in the Matter, Probably Suggesting the Demand for a Settlement.

The examination of Treasurer Murphy's books by Expert E. M. Daniel of Milwaukee, is finished and it is expected that something will be done in the matter by the council tonight. The work of both experts is now at an end and it is supposed that the finance committee will recommend that either the bondsmen be called upon for a settlement or that the matter be dropped. The former recommendation is the one expected if the matter comes before the council. This will probably result in their being a full house at the meeting this evening. The members of the finance committee are very reluctant concerning the recommendation and just what it will be remains to be seen. It is intimated by those who are in a position to know that Mr. Card's report is conceded to be substantially correct, Expert Daniel who was in Mr. Murphy's employ, finding no glaring errors although some differences were discovered.

Reminded Him.

The sick tragedian lay on his couch, staring with widely opened eyes into vacancy.

The doctor who had been summoned first had just arrived, and while he was removing his gloves the second doctor came into the room.

"He mutters," said the first. "His mind wanders."

"N-no. I think not," replied the attendant, bending over the patient. "He spoke quite slowly and distinctly."

"What did he say?" inquired the second.

"He said: 'One woe doth tread upon another's heel, so fast they follow!'"

—Chicago Tribune.

An Ungrateful Texan.

Speaking of Thanksgiving some people never know when they ought to be grateful. Old Judge Peterby, a noted Texan, has been laid up for some time with the gout. His legs are swelled up to an enormous size. He is very impatient, and his doctor, who is also a church member, rebuked him saying:

"You should be grateful to the Almighty for His kindness."

"What kindness?"

"His kindness in giving you only two legs to suffer with. Suppose you had as many legs as a centipede."—Texas Sittings.

The Secret.

Can a woman a secret keep?
There is one such, I'll engage,
As the years upon her creep—
'Tis the secret of her age.

—Judge.

TEMPUS FUIGIT.

He—What! Another bill from your milliner. Why, I just paid one day before yesterday.

She—Day before yesterday! How time does fly.—Fliegende Blaetter.

Mild in Comparison.

"If that man had spoken to me as he did to you," said one of the bystanders after the crowd on the corner had dwindled away, "and called me a driving idiot, a sneaking scoundrel, a pie-faced mutthead, a measly hypocrite, a hump-shouldered villain and an all-round chump with a skull full of cold mush instead of brains, I'd have knocked him down."

"Why, great Scott!" responded the big, good-natured man in the heavy overcoat. "I'm used to worse than that. I've run twice in my life for sheriff."—Chicago Tribune.

The Pronunciation.

Skeezicks—Do you pronounce it "patronage," or "pat-ronage?"

Wheezix—You mean political offices for distribution?

Skeezicks—Yes.

Wheezix—Ordinarily I say "patronage," but when I refer to the police and other offices in New York city, I always say "Pat-ronage."—Truth.

In the Cause of Science.

Spriggins—I don't hear anything lately of Dr. Garner and his study of the monkey tongue.

Diggins—No. You see the doctor is studying the language of the railroad brakeman. He has succeeded in distinguishing a vocabulary of eleven distinct words, and he hopes to add to that number.—Judge.

He Did Not Take It.

"Say, pop, do people take snuff nowadays?"

"Sometimes, my son."

"Oh, then, it's all right."

"What is all right?"

"Why, I heard mamma telling Aunt Amy that you wasn't up to snuff."—Detroit Free Press.

His Life Work.

Bacon—Young Penn told the typewriter that she had her hat on wrong side in front. How do you suppose he knew that?

Egbert—That's his business. He's connected with the puzzle department on a weekly newspaper.—Yonkers Statesman.

Breakers Ahead!

Prudence, foresight, that might have saved many a good ship that has gone to pieces among the breakers, is a quality "conspicuous by its absence" among many classes of invalids, and among none more notably than persons troubled with inactivity of the kidneys and bladder. When these organs fall in duty, grievous trouble is to be apprehended. "rich's" disease, diabetes, catarrh and stone in the bladder, are among the diseases which a disregard of early symptoms confirm and render fatal. That "irregular" effluvia, Hostetter's Stomach Bitters, will—and let no one so troubled to get this—remedy the symptoms of approaching renal disease and check a further progress. Equally efficacious is the Bitters for constipation, liver complaint, material and rheumatic trouble and debility.

John D. Reese, an ironworker, of Youngstown, Ohio, who never saw the inside of a medical school, is causing a sensation by his marvelous dexterity in setting broken limbs, dislocated members and reducing sprains that have baffled the skill of many expert surgeons. His skill has given him the name of "Bonesetter" Reese, and he has a room filled with crutches and canes left by patients who entered his modest residence crippled and walked away cured. Reese still retains his position in a rolling mill, devoting his spare time to curing the afflicted.

PINCHED FACES.

PECULIAR TO AMERICAN WOMEN.

Some of the Causes which Appear upon Investigation.

(SPECIAL TO OUR LADY READERS.)

Ask them "What can be the matter?" and the invariable answer is, "I don't know."

The eyes droop, and an air of deep gloom seems to overwhelm them. Press your questions a little closer, and you find avoidance of all society, reluctance to make the slightest effort, all accompanied with a crushing sense of bearing down.

Further investigation discloses irregularity of periods, dizziness and faintness at times, and perhaps leucorrhoea.

Then surely the evidence is all-sufficient. An American woman has discovered that the cause of all this lies in a deranged and diseased uterus or womb.

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is the most marvellous cure for this trouble ever discovered.

A purely vegetable remedy, it is at once an absolutely safe and natural cure for this crushing trouble.

It has cured thousands, and will cure you as sure as truth is truth.

Here is a letter from one of them which she wants us to publish:—

"For years I have been almost a constant sufferer from female trouble in all its dreadful forms: shooting pains all over my body, sick headache, spinal weakness, dizziness, depression, and everything that was horrid. I tried many doctors in different parts of the United States, but Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable compound has done more for me than all the doctors."

"I feel it my duty to tell you these facts that you also may be cured. My heart is full of gratitude to Mrs. Pinkham."—Mrs. Harriet Wampler, Box 944, Baraboo, Wis.

ARE GETTING NEAR THE BIG REVIVAL

ALL MANKIND IS TURNING TOWARD ISRAEL.

Dr. Talmage Reads the Signs of the Times in a Notable Sermon—Real Meaning of Electricity, Steam and Other Improvements.

BROOKLYN, N. Y., Dec. 2.—Dr. Talmage chose for the subject of his sermon through the press-to-day, the "Objections to Religious Revivals," from the text: Luke v:8, "They inclosed a great multitude of fishes, and their net broke."

Simon and his comrades had experienced the night before what fishermen call "poor luck." Christ steps on board the fishing smack and tells the sailors to pull away from the beach, and directs them to sink the net. Sure enough, very soon the net is full of fishes, and the sailors begin to haul in. So large a school of fish was taken, that the hardy men begin to look red in the face as they pull, and hardly have they begun to rejoice at their success when snap goes a thread of the net, and snap goes another thread, so there is danger not only of losing the fish, but of losing the net.

Without much care as to how much the boat tilts, or how much water is splashed on deck, the fishermen rush about, gathering up the broken meshes of the net. Out yonder is a ship dancing on the wave, and they hail it: "Ship ahoy! bear down this way!" The ship comes, and both boats, and fishing smacks are filled with the floundering treasures.

"Ah!" says some one, "how much better it would have been if they had stayed on shore, and fished with a hook and line, and taken one at a time, instead of having this great excitement, and the boat almost upset, and the net broken, and having to call for help, and getting sopping wet with the sea!" The church is the boat, the gospel is the net, society is the sea, and a great revival is a whole school brought in at one sweep of the net. I have admiration for that man who goes out with a hook and line to fish. I admire the way he unwinds the reel, and adjusts the bait, and drops the hook in a quiet place on a still afternoon, and here catches one and there one; but I like also a big boat, and a large crew, and a net a mile long, and swift oars, and stout sails, and a stiff breeze, and a great multitude of souls brought—so great a multitude that you have to get help to draw it ashore, straining the net to the utmost until it breaks here and there, letting a few escape, but bringing the great multitude into eternal safety.

In other words, I believe in revivals. The great work of saving men began with 3,000 people joining the church in one day, and it will close with forty or a hundred million people saved in twenty-four hours, when nations shall be born in a day. But there are objections to revivals. People are opposed to them because the net might get broken, and if by the pressure of souls it does not get broken, then they take their own penknives and slit the net. "They inclosed a great multitude of fishes and the net broke."

It is sometimes opposed to revivals of religion that those who come into the church at such times do not hold out; as long as there is a gale of blessing, they have their sails up; but as soon as strong winds stop blowing, then they drop into a dead calm. But what are the facts in the case? In all our churches, the vast majority of the useful people are those who are brought in under great awakenings, and they hold out. Who are the prominent men in the United States in churches, in prayer meetings, in Sabbath schools? For the most part they are the product of great awakenings.

I have noticed that those who are brought into the Kingdom of God through revivals have more persistence and more determination in the Christian life than those who come in under a low state of religion. People born in an ice house may live, but they will never get over the cold they caught in the ice house. A cannon ball depends upon the impulse with which it starts for how far it shall go and how swiftly; and the greater the revival force with which a soul is started, the more far-reaching and far-resounding will be the execution.

But it is sometimes objected to revivals that there is so much excitement that people mistake hysteria for religion.

We must admit that in every revival of religion there is either a suppressed or a demonstrated excitement. Indeed, if a man can go out of a state of condemnation into a state of acceptance with God, or see others go, without any agitation of soul, he is in an unhealthy, morbid state, and is as repulsive and absurd as a man who should boast he saw a child snatched out from under a horse's hoofs, and felt no agitation, or saw a man rescued from the fourth story of a house on fire, and felt no acceleration of the pulse.

Salvation from sin and death and hell into life and peace and heaven forever, is such a tremendous thing that if a man tells me he can look on it without any agitation I doubt his Christianity. The fact is, that sometimes excitement is the most important possible thing. In case of resuscitation from drowning or freezing the one idea is to excite animation. Before conversion we are dead. It is the business of the church to revive, arouse, awaken, resuscitate, startle into life. Excitement is bad or good according to what it makes us do. If it makes us do that which is bad, it is bad excitement; but if it makes us agitated about our eternal welfare, if it makes us pray, if it makes us attend upon Christian service, if it makes us cry unto God for mercy, then it is a good excitement.

It is sometimes said that during revivals of religion great multitudes of children and young people are brought into the church, and they do not know what they are about. It has been my observation that the earlier people come into the kingdom of God the more useful they are.

Robert Hall, the prince of Baptist preachers, was converted at 12 years of age. It is supposed he knew what he was about. Matthew Henry, the commentator, who did more than any man of his century for increasing the interest in the study of the scriptures, was converted at 11 years of age; Isabella Graham, immortal in the Christian church, was converted at 10 years of age; Dr. Watts, whose hymns will be sung all down the ages, was converted at 9 years of age; Jonathan Edwards, perhaps the mightiest intellect that the American pulpit ever produced, was converted at 7 years of age; and that father and mother take an awful responsibility when they tell their child at 7 years of age, "You are too young to be a Christian," or "You are too young to connect yourself with the church." That is a mistake as long as eternity.

If during a revival two persons present themselves as candidates for the church, and the one is ten years of age and the other is 40 years of age, I will have more confidence in the profession of religion of the one 10 years of age than the one 40 years of age. Why? The one who professes at 40 years of age has forty years of impulse in the wrong direction to correct, the child has only ten years in the wrong direction to correct. Four times ten are forty. Four times the religious prospect for the lad that comes into the kingdom of God, and into the church at 10 years of age than the man at 40.

I am very apt to look upon revivals as connected with certain men who fostered them. People who in this day do not like revivals, nevertheless have not words to express their admiration for the revivalists of the past, for they were revivalists—Jonathan Edwards, John Wesley, George Whitfield, Fletcher, Griffin, Davies, Osborn, Knapp, Nettleton, and many others whose names come to my mind. The strength of their intellect and the holiness of their lives make me think they would not have anything to do with that which was ephemeral. Oh! it is easy to talk against revivals.

A man said to Mr. Dawson: "I like your sermons very much, but the after meetings I despise. When the prayer meetings begin I always go up into the gallery and look down, and I am disgusted." "Well," said Mr. Dawson, "the reason is you go on the top of your neighbor's house and look down his chimney to examine his fire, and of course you only get smoke in your eyes. Why don't you come in the door and sit down and warm?"

Oh! I am afraid to say anything against revivals of religion, or against anything that looks like them, because I think it may be a sin against the Holy Ghost, and you know the Bible says that a sin against the Holy Ghost shall never be forgiven, neither in this world nor the world to come. Now, if you are a painter, and I speak against your pictures, do I not speak against you? If you are an architect, and I speak against a building you put up, do I not speak against you? If a revival be the work of the Holy Ghost, and I speak against that revival, do I not speak against the Holy Ghost? And whosoever speaketh against the Holy Ghost, says the Bible, he shall never be forgiven, neither in this world nor in the world to come. I think sometimes people have made a fatal mistake in this direction.

Many of you know the history of Aaron Burr. He was one of the most brilliant men of his day. I suppose this country never produced a stronger intellect. He was capable of doing anything good and great for his country, or for the Church of God had he been rightly disposed; but his name is associated with treason against the United States government which he tried to overthrow, and with libertinism and public immorality.

Do you know where Aaron Burr started on the downward road. It was when he was in college, and he became anxious about his soul, and was about to put himself under the influences of a revival, and a minister of religion said: Don't go there Aaron, don't go there; that's a place of wildfire and great excitement; no religion about that; don't go there. He tarried away. His serious impressions departed. He started on the downward road. And who is responsible for his ruin? Was it the minister who warned him against that revival?

When I am speaking of excitement in revivals, of course I do not mean temporary derangement of the nerves; I do not mean the absurd things of which we have read as Christening sometime in the church of Christ, but I mean an intelligent, intense, all absorbing agitation of body, mind and soul in the work of spiritual escape and spiritual rescue.

The difficulty is that when a revival begins in a church it begins at so many points, that while you have doused one anxious soul with a pail of cold water, there are 500 other anxious souls on fire. Oh! how much better it would be to lay hold of the chariot of Christ's gospel and help pull it on, rather than to fling ourselves in front of the wheels, trying to block their progress. We will not stop the chariot, but we ourselves will be ground to powder.

Did you ever hear that there was a convention once held among the icebergs in the Arctic? It seems that the summer was coming on and the sun was getting hotter and hotter, and there was danger that the whole ice field would break up and flow away; so the tallest, and the coldest, and the broadest of all the icebergs, the very king of the Arctic, stood at the head of the convention, and with a gavel of ice smote on a table of ice calling the convention to order. But the sun kept growing in intensity of heat, and the south wind blew stronger and stronger, and soon all the ice field began to flow away. The first resolution passed by the convention was: "Resolved, That we abolish the sun."

But the sun would not be abolished. The heat of the sun grew greater and greater until after awhile the very king of the icebergs began to perspire under the glow, and the smaller icebergs fell over, and the cry was: "Too much excitement! order! order!" Then the whole body, the whole field of ice, began to flow out, and a thousand voices began to ask: "Where are we going to now? Where are we floating to? We will all break to pieces." By this time the icebergs had reached the gulf stream; and they were melted into the bosom of the Atlantic ocean. The warm sun is the eternal spirit. The icebergs are frigid Christians. The warm gulf stream is a great revival. The ocean into which everything melted is the great, wide heart of the pardoning and sympathizing God.

But I think, after all, the greatest obstacle to revivals throughout Christendom to-day is an unconverted ministry. We must believe that the vast majority of those who officiate at sacred altars are regenerated; but I suppose there may float into the ministry of all the denominations of Christians men whose hearts have never been changed by the grace of God. Of course they are all antagonistic to revivals.

Suppose by some extra prolongation of human life, at the next fifty years you should walk around the world, you would not in all that walk find one person that you recognize. Why? All dead, or so changed you would not know them. In other words, if you postpone the redemption of this world for fifty years, you admit that the majority of the two whole generations shall go off the stage unblessed and unsaved. I tell you the church of Jesus Christ can not consent to it. We must pray and toil and have the revival spirit, and we must struggle to have the whole world saved before the men and women now in middle life pass off.

"Oh!" you say, "it is too vast an enterprise to be conducted in so short a time." Do you know how long it would take to save the whole world if each man would bring another? It would take ten years. By a calculation in compound interest, each man bringing another and that one another, and that one another, in ten years the whole world would be saved. If the world is not saved in the next ten years, it will be the fault of the Church of Christ.

It seems to me as if God is preparing the world for some quick and universal movement. A celebrated electrician gave me a telegraph chart of the world. On that chart the wires crossing the continents and the cables under the sea looked like veins read with blood. On that chart I see that the headquarters of the lightnings are in Great Britain and the United States. In London and New York the lightnings are stable, waiting to be harnessed for some quick dispatch. That shows you that the telegraph is in possession of Christianity.

It is a significant fact that the man who invented the telegraph was an old fashioned Christian—Prof. Morse, and that the man who put the telegraph under the sea was an old fashioned Christian—Cyrus W. Field; and that the president of the most famous of the telegraph companies of country was an old fashioned Christian—William Orton, going straight to his home in heaven. What does all that mean?

I do not suppose that the telegraph was invented merely to let us know whether flour is up or down, or which filly won the race at the Derby, or which marksman beat at Dollywood. I supposed the telegraph was invented and built to call the world to God.

In some of the attributes of the Lord we seem to share on a small scale. For instance, in his love and in his kindness. But until of late, foreknowledge, omniscience, omnipresence, omnipotence, seem to have been exclusively God's possession. God desiring to make the race like himself, gives us a species of foreknowledge in the weather probabilities, gives us a species of omniscience in telegraphy, gives us a species of omnipresence in the telephone, gives us a species of omnipotence in the steam power. Discoveries and inventions all around about us, people are asking what next?

I will tell you what next. Next, a stupendous religious movement. Next, the end of war. Next, the crash of despotisms. Next, the world's expurgation. Next, the Christlike domination. Next, the judgment. What becomes of the world after I care not. It will have suffered and achieved enough for one world. Lay it up in the dry-docks of eternity, like an old man-of-war gone out of service. Or, fit it up like a ship of relief to carry bread to some other suffering planet. Or, let it be demolished. Farewell, dear old world, that began with paradise and ended with judgment conflagration.

I suffered from a severe attack of Mercurial Rheumatism, my arms and legs being swollen to more than twice their natural size, causing the most excruciating pains. I spent hundreds of dollars without relief, but after taking a few bottles of
